CBM PRAYERLINE

Working in Lebanon

Please pray for our field staff in Lebanon, Emad and Almess Botro and their two boys Timothy and Nathaniel. Pray for Emad as he continues to work on his PhD dissertation. His next chapter is due by the end of January 2019. Emad and Almess were appointed by CBM in January 2015 to serve at the Arab Baptist Theological Seminary (ABTS) in Lebanon. Emad serves as a lecturer in the areas of Old Testament and Islamic studies at ABTS. Please pray for the resources and models for ministry in the Middle Eastern context that Emad is developing. Pray for Almess as she explores opportunities to work with Iraqi and Syrian refugees. Please pray for the Botros family and for doors to continue to open and further their ministry.

Surviving in South Sudan

Pray for South Sudan as the uprising continues. The country continues to struggle economically and politically. Civil war and famine have ravaged South Sudan for five years now, killing almost 400,000 people and forcing more than 2.4 million to flee to neighbouring countries. Please pray for peace and rest during this time. Pray for the poor and starving, the widows and the orphans. CBM has been working with partner, Faith Evangelical Baptist Church (FEBAC) for the past six years. FEBAC has 96 churches throughout Sudan. Please pray for their mission and that they would receive the resources needed to continue building capacity in the areas of leadership building, food security projects, water projects and peacebuilding.

Snow and Syrian Refugees

Please continue to pray for Syrian refugees struggling to survive Lebanon's harsh winter while living in refugee camps. Last week, a huge snow storm buried Lebanon in snow and closed schools and businesses for two days. The storm caused refugee tents to flood and freeze. The refugees have nowhere else to go and officials say it's the worst storm the camps have ever experienced. Please pray for refugee families to stay warm and receive the resources they need to make it through the winter. Pray for our field staff in Lebanon to access how they can best continue to support Syrian refugees.
