What's Happening at WBC

Please note that many of our regular ministries will be paused over the Christmas break.

January 2nd Worship Service

We would like to remind you pre-registration is not required for next Sunday, January 2nd. There will be ONE SERVICE ONLY at 10:00 AM. Your information will be recorded at the door for contact tracing purposes.

2021 Annual Report

If you are a member of a Guild, Board or Committee and responsible for the report, friendly reminder to have them completed by December 31st.

2022 Offering Envelopes Delayed

Offering envelope box sets have been ordered for those giving through envelopes. We have been advised by the provider that the sets may be delayed into early January. In lieu of this, unlabeled envelopes will be available for use each Sunday until the box sets arrive (please record envelope # or name).

Sympathy is extended to Mike and Lois Derrah (82 Craig Road, Hay Settlement, E7N 2Z4) on the passing of her mother, Thelma Everett, Friday, December 17, 2021.

Sympathy is extended to Terry Slipp (60 Saunders Street, Grafton, E7N 1H3) and Belinda Slipp & Family (127 Helen Street, Woodstock, E7M 1W6) on the passing of their brother and brother-in-law, James Slipp, Monday, December 20, 2021.

Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada:

SUNDAY PRAYER LINK

As we enter into a week of travel, rest, and visiting before the New Year, take a moment to express gratitude to the Lord for what He has done in your family, church community, and neighbourhood in 2021. Pray for our churches to be seeking ways to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our neighbourhoods this winter, joining what He is already doing.

Please Pray for our Known Sick:

Shannex: Faye Bell

Carleton Manor: Marg Martin, Vaughn Graham, Keith Schriver

At Home: John Irvine, Kyla McLellan, Deverne Chase (Valerie Palmer's brother), Joyce Graham and Fayza (Bassem Aiad's mother).
